

It's against the law to hang lights in trees and over sidewalk pathways - per photos. It is imperative that these conditions are noted in DOT guidelines, specifically so establishments are informed, but further so our Forestry Department can concentrate on taking care of our trees, and not outdoor dining violators.