

New York City Department of Consumer and Worker Protection

Notice of Public Hearing and Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Rules

What are we proposing? The Department of Consumer and Worker Protection (“DCWP” or “Department”) is proposing to amend its rules to extend the expiration date for the Electronic or Home Appliance Service Dealer license in order to streamline implementation of Local Law 183 of 2025, which modifies various provisions of DCWP’s licensing laws.

When and where is the hearing? DCWP will hold a public hearing on the proposed rule. The public hearing will take place at 11:00 AM on February 25, 2026. The public hearing will be accessible by phone and videoconference.

- To participate in the public hearing via phone, please dial +1 646-893-7101
 - Phone conference ID: 225 448 142#
- To participate in the public hearing via videoconference, please follow the online link:

How do I comment on the proposed rules? Anyone can comment on the proposed rules by:

- Website. You can submit comments to DCWP through the NYC rules website at <http://rules.cityofnewyork.us>.
- Email. You can email comments to Rulecomments@dcwp.nyc.gov.
- Speaking at the hearing. Anyone who wants to comment on the proposed rule at the public hearing must sign up to speak. You can sign up before the hearing by emailing Rulecomments@dcwp.nyc.gov. You can also sign up on the phone or videoconference before the hearing begins at 11:00 AM on February 25, 2026. You can speak for up to three minutes. Please note that the hearing is for accepting oral testimony only and is not held in a “Question and Answer” format.

Is there a deadline to submit comments? Yes. You must submit any comments to the proposed rule on or before February 25, 2026.

What if I need assistance to participate in the hearing? You must tell DCWP’s External Affairs division if you need a reasonable accommodation of a disability at the hearing. You must tell us if you need a sign language interpreter. You may tell us by email at Rulecomments@dcwp.nyc.gov. Advance notice is requested to allow sufficient time to arrange the accommodation. Please tell us by February 18, 2026.

Can I review the comments made on the proposed rules? You can review the comments made online on the proposed rules by going to the website at <http://rules.cityofnewyork.us/>. A few days after the hearing, all comments received by DCWP on the proposed rule will be made available to the public online at <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/dca/about/public-hearings-comments.page>.

What authorizes DCWP to make this rule? Sections 1043 and 2203(f) of the New York City Charter and section 20-104 of the New York City Administrative Code authorize the Department of Consumer and Worker Protection to make these proposed rules.

This proposed rule was not included in the Department of Consumer and Worker Protection's regulatory agenda for this Fiscal Year because it was not contemplated when the Department published the agenda.

Where can I find DCWP's rules? The Department's rules are in Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York.

What laws govern the rulemaking process? DCWP must meet the requirements of section 1043 of the City Charter when creating or changing rules. This notice is made according to the requirements of section 1043 of the City Charter.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Proposed Rule

The Department of Consumer and Worker Protection ("DCWP" or "Department") is proposing to amend its rules to streamline implementation of Local Law 183 of 2025. Among other reforms to DCWP's licensing laws, Local Law 183 merges two licensed businesses categories – Electronic or Home Appliance Service Dealers and Electronics Stores – into one license category.

To simplify the merger of these two categories and operational changes that are needed as a result, DCWP is proposing a rule that changes the expiration date of Electronic or Home Appliance Service Dealers from June 30 of even years to December 31 of even years, the expiration date for Electronics Stores, so that the expiration dates of the two merged categories are aligned.

Sections 1043 and 2203(f) of the New York City Charter and section 20-104 of the New York City Administrative Code authorize the Department of Consumer and Worker Protection to make these proposed rules.
